MOTION FOR EXTENSION

Comes now the United States of America, and states:

1. The government was ordered to file its response to defendant's Motion to Dismiss as a Matter of Law for Failure to State an Offense and Motion to Dismiss Due to Defective Indictment by March 23, 2007.

2. The government requests an additional seven days, to up and including March 30, 2007, to respond to the defense motions. This motion is based upon the assigned government counsel's need for additional time and the inability for another AUSA has to be reassigned to this case, learn the file and prepare responses on such short notice.

3. The undersigned needs additional time to review the legal issues raised in these motions.

4. The trial in this matter is currently set for June 25, 2007.

5. This office has contacted the office of John E. Martin to inform him that we will be requesting this short continuance. We were informed that Attorney Martin was out of the district and unavailable at the time we called.

WHEREFORE, the government requests that the Court grant it an extension to file its written response to the defendant's Motion to Dismiss as a Matter of Law for Failure to State an Offense and Motion to Dismiss Due to Defective Indictment until up and including March 30, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH S. VAN BOKKELEN
